BLICKLING ESTATE

Aylsham, Norfolk NR11 6NF
01263 738030
www.nationaltrust.org.uk/blickling-estate

Blickling has always been a place of pilgrimage and tranquillity. Among its former residents were the Boleyn family during the 16th c. Hire a bike or take a walk and head out into the park, following the marked routes. You will find peaceful woodland, historic buildings, stunning views and abundant wildlife.

FELBRIGG HALL

Felbrigg NR11 8PR
01263 837444
www.nationaltrust.org.uk/felbrigg-hall

Felbrigg has both opulence and homeliness, each room feeds the imagination. Outside, the restored walled garden is a delight and inspiration. It is decorative and productive, providing beautiful flowers for the hall and allotments providing fruit and vegetables for the community.

BURE VALLEY RAILWAY

Norwich Road, NR11 6BW
www.bvrw.co.uk

The railway runs between Aylsham and Wroxham, the 'Capital' of the Norfolk Broads with country stations serving villages at Brampton, Buxton and Coltishall. It is a 18 mile round trip along the 15 inch (381 mm) minimum gauge line. It is run entirely by volunteers. Take the Boat Train and cruise the Broads.

THE CANOEMAN

10 Norwich Rd, Wroxham NR12 8RX
0845 496 9177
www.thecanoeman.com/

Take a train from Aylsham down the Bure Valley and pick up a kayak from a pre-arranged point. Calm water with little or no tidal movement makes for easy paddling that even complete novices can enjoy. Take in the beautiful scenery and enjoy unique and close up wildlife experiences.

MARRIOTT'S WAY

www.marriottsway.info/

Marriott's Way is a 26-mile footpath, bridleway and cycle route, which follows the route of a former railway line, between the historic market town of Aylsham and the city of Norwich.

WEAVERS' WAY

www.norfolk.gov.uk/Leisure_and_culture/Norfolk_Trails/Weavers_Way/index.htm

Weavers' Way offers a rich contrast of scenery, from the woodlands and mixed farmland of north Norfolk to the grazing marshes beside the rivers Thurne, Bure and Yare.
